EUROPEAN WAR CLOUDS

Keen Diplomatic Work in Progress.

The Status of Newfoundland Affairs. Bitterness in the Irish Struggle.

Copyright 1891 by New York Associated Press. LONDON, March 27 .- Lord Salisbury, just before starting for San Remo, held a long conference with Lord Knutsford and Mr. Currie of the Foreign Office.

A work of supreme difficulty, requiring the most delicate handling, was that Captain O'Shea has brought suit gale this morning, two miles north of confided to Currie, relating to the en- against the Bishop of Galway and gagements of England to protect Belgium. King Leopold, during his recent of Cork, for alleged libelous utterances visit, pressed for an answer as to what practical cooperation England would give under the existing treaty for the defense of Belgian neutrality in the event of war. Lord Salisbury, according to report, promised English aid by a fleet and contingent of troops, if needed, to defend Antwerp, leaving the the Guelph fund scandal. Belgian army free for defensive operations in the forts of Meuse.

Something occurring behind the the apprehension that the final move in the long game preluding war will not be embarrassed houses in this city. The long delayed. It is reported an agreement has been reached between the sugar refinery. French and Russian Governments in regard to a simultaneous mobilization of troops and other movements in the event of war. The heads of the European powers seem to be informed of the Russian scheme of attack, which is likely to declare itself in the autumn.

The question of Belgian neutrality i intimately associated with England's attitude in such a conflict, and it will be Salisbury's justification if his agreement with King Leopold comes up in Parliament. Lord Knutsford damaged his reputation among the Conservatives through his tactless treatment of the Newfoundland matter. He required coaching by Salisbury, who is blamed within his own circle for allowing the colonial minister too free a hand. Sir Charles Dilke, in a newspaper article, discloses a source of uneasiness prevailing amongst the ministerialists. If," he says, "The strange foreign arof the civit war. If Newfoundland was named Frank Morgan and, looking up an American State, France would sell to the press gallery, remarking to Taul-

Schnadhorst, Liberal caucus chief, opposes Sir Charles' candidacy on the ground that it would alienate thousands of dissenters.

HIBERNIAN PLEASANTRY.

Pleased at the Burning of a Court House in Cork.

CORK, March 27 .- While the judge was summing up today in the case of the Government vs. O'Brien, Dalton and others, the Court House was set on fire and, but for the coolness of the police and judge, many people would have been injured. As it was, in spite of the panic, all were gotten out sately. The police are investigating the affair.

The flames spread rapidly and the Court House, including the municipal chamber and the city and county offices, was totally destroyed. Some of the archives were saved, but many documents, some of them dating back for centuries, were destroyed. When the centuries, were destroyed. When the flagstaff, which surmounted the building, burned away and the Union Jack fell into the flames, on-lookers set up a great cheer.

IOWA AND PROHIBITION

A REOPENING OF THE WHOLE PROHIBITORY TROUBLE.

President Harvey, of the State Temperance Alliance, Claims the Existence of a "Dry" Constitutional Amendment.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 27 .- President Harvey, of the State Temperance Alliance, took steps today to reopen the question of the prohibitory constitutional amendment passed by the Legislature, but which, owing to clerical errors in the same, was annulled by the Supreme Court and the present prohibitory law of necessity. then passed by the General Assembly.

The Temperance Alliance, through its president, still insists that the amendment is part of the constitution of the State, notwithstanding the decision of the Supreme Court people, having Proctor spent yesterday inspecting passed upon the same in their sovereign Forts Davis, Hancock and Bliss. His capacity and removed it from the jurisdiction of courts. President Harvey today demanded of Secretary of State McFarland a certified copy of the constitution of the State, in-cluding this amendment. McFarland refused and said the amendment was not a part of the constitution and therefore not a matter to be certified from his office. Harvey then had served upon Secretary McFarland an original notice, setting out that the petition should be on file and immediately petioned the District Court asking a writ of mandamus against the Secretary compelling him to certify as demanded. Secretary McFarland will take steps to make a defense in the case. The step taken by the Alliance has caused much surprise and is the general topic of com ment. It means the opening up before the Supreme Court of the whole constitutional prohibitory question and in-teresting developments are anticipated.
